

Powell Place Builder Team

The Powell Place builder team features three of the area's finest homebuilders: Saussy Burbank, Piccola Builders, and Robuck Homes. Among them, you'll find a range of style and prices that promises the right home for you.

Saussy Burbank

Consistently ranked among the top homebuilders in customer satisfaction, Saussy Burbank attributes much of its success to their commitment to a guiding principle: each home should be unique and offer the same quality of design and craftsmanship regardless of size or price. Saussy Burbank offers smaller, detached cottage homes, as well as larger detached homes in Powell Place.

Piccola Builders

Piccola Builders builds each home with the same quality, care and workmanship that they put into their own personal homes. Incorporating the latest products, designs, and technology in their homes ensures that Piccola Builders provide the absolute best home for their customers. They work closely with each homeowner to add those special, personal touches and custom features. Piccola Builders currently offers detached homes in Powell Place, with a town home collection coming soon!

Robuck Homes

From traditional values, dedicated employees and distinctive products, to enduring quality, modern operations and outstanding service, Robuck Homes brings more than 75 years of custom home building experience to every customer. Robuck Homes is known throughout the industry for uncompromising quality, unparalleled service and exceptional value. Responsive and customer-focused, they have thousands of satisfied customers, all of whom agree that Robuck Homes is both a “great builder” and a “great friend.” Robuck Homes offers detached homes in Powell Place.

